Students interested in living in Troy University Foundation’s Newman Center Living Facility must complete the Troy University Housing Application, this form and provide a letter of recommendation from a community leader, advisor or counselor or some other respected person who is familiar with the applicant.

All Housing and Residence Life deadlines must be met in order for the applicant to receive consideration.

Persons applying for this type of living must meet and be willing to maintain the following requirements:

1) Must have and maintain a minimum 2.50 grade point average overall and each semester. High school GPA will be considered for incoming freshmen.
2) Must be respectful of diversity.
3) Must refrain from the use of alcohol or illegal drugs while in the facility.
4) Must be willing to maintain the standards of the “Trojan Way”.
5) Must be engaged in some type of community service or service learning project at least semi-annually.

I accept and agree to maintain the standards as outlined above in order to live in the Troy University Foundation’s Newman Center Living Facility.
